

WEEK THREE

Destiny is the Mark of Maturity

Hebrews 11:24-25

SERMON SUMMARY

By faith Moses, when he became of age . . . You will never discover your destiny as long as you are living in your _____. If you want to discover your destiny, you must pursue _____ (1 Kings 3:9; Ephesians 4:14-16).

. . . refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter. . . You cannot discover _____ you are until you first discover _____ you are, and the moment you discover _____ you are, you also discover _____ you're not.

Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin . . . The discovery of your destiny requires the _____ of yourself!

The first stage of the discovery of your destiny is the discovery of your _____.

The word passion comes from the Latin, pati, which means to _____.

Your destiny is not your great _____ in the world, it is your great _____ to the kingdom, and it is discovered at the proximity of a _____.

Pharaoh's daughter and Egypt represent the passing _____ of sin, a life of selfish _____ . . . living for me, for what I can get and what I can do. You must forsake this in order for the passion that God has put deep inside your heart to emerge!

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Now take a few moments to answer the following questions so that you can be prepared to participate in the discussion at your Community Group meeting this week.

1. In embracing who you are in Christ, what false identity have you had to reject?

2. What is the Egypt that you still need to forsake?

3. Have you experienced moral indignation or empathic longing? Explain.

4. After hearing the message, did you make any decisions to work on changing anything in your life? If so, what and why?
